

Partners For Progress Family Summerfest Event

Oh, those lazy, hazy last days of summer. Do you remember? Family, friends, and celebrations. Fun fairs. 25 cent games. Watermelon on your face. Dancing in the sun. The smell of food everywhere. Those days are so magical, especially for a child. Everyone waits for those last few weekends of summer with unbelievable anticipation. Experience it all again with us!

Partners For Progress will be holding their Family Summerfest Event on Sunday, August 28, 2011, at Brighton Farm in Antioch from 8:30 AM until 3:00 PM. This is the day that all of our riders look forward to! A day of summer fun filled with games, raffles, an old fashioned cakewalk, music, a petting zoo, face painting, and wonderful summer food.

Most importantly, it is the day when the family and friends of our riders come together with the community to share the riding skills that they have mastered. These skills are allowing them to become more confident individuals with improved physical and mental capabilities. With this comes a more complete integration for them in their schools and communities, which leads to a more fulfilling life.

Come and Join Us for a Day of Old Fashion Family Fun on Sunday, August 28th!
